

JUGGLING

Instructor

IMRAN KHAN

ImRan was part of the circus called life as a media/advertising professional for more than 20 odd years. He stated his career as an intern under the aegis of, Shashank 'Quick Gun Murgan' Ghose. He went on to rise up the ladder to become the youngest producer for the show, First Day First Show. He then served the entertainment industry making movie promos/trailers, opening title sequence, music videos, corporate audio-visuals, and advertising commercials until one day, he had an epiphany and decided there was more to life than this. Imran decided to redirect his creative energy and upgrade himself. He created new skill sets of, Speech and Voice to speak on stage as Master of Ceremonies, Juggling, Unicycling, Juggling in conjunction with riding his Unicycle and also honed the skill of playing a Violin. He tapped into his curiosity and decided that the process of learning shall never cease

- Introduction Class will Focus on Information and a guidepost for Students
- 2nd Class will Focus on students exposure on counting and catching
- 3rd Class will Focus on discomfort
- 4th Class will Focus introduction to 2 Balls transfer in opposite hands
- 5th Class will be a Multi - tasking Class
- 6th Class on ward's the student will be introduced with finer technical details to put more emphasis on learning the right pattern of catch and throw only than we will decide on if, there is a need of adding another ball as, 3 balls will need perfection of ball hold wait and catch... post this class all proceeding classes will be divided into repetition of patterns and experiments with new patterns for assignments.