

VIOLIN

Instructor

IMRAN KHAN

ImRan was part of the circus called life as a media/advertising professional for more than 20 odd years. He stated his career as an intern under the aegis of, Shashank 'Quick Gun Murgan' Ghose. He went on to rise up the ladder to become the youngest producer for the show, First Day First Show. He then served the entertainment industry making movie promos/trailers, opening title sequence, music videos, corporate audio-visuals, and advertising commercials until one day, he had an epiphany and decided there was more to life than this. Imran decided to redirect his creative energy and upgrade himself. He created new skill sets of, Speech and Voice to speak on stage as Master of Ceremonies, Juggling, Unicycling, Juggling in conjunction with riding his Unicycle and also honed the skill of playing a Violin. He tapped into his curiosity and decided that the process of learning shall never cease."

- Introduction Class will Focus on Information and a guidepost for
- Students
- 2nd Class will have only Focus on students exposure on Rhythm
- 3rd Class will Focus Scales and Rhythm
- 4th Class will Focus Bow Hold
- 5th Class on-wards the student will be introduced with technical lessons and post this class all proceeding classes will be divided into 2 sections on alternate classes (Rhythm & Technical Exercise) and (Rhythm and Lessons from Eta Cohen Violin book) to strengthen the student with strong sense of beats.

